

JUDGE PAROLES GIRL BRIDE WHO FORGED CHECKS

Allows Her Freedom in Minors' Care, Pending Sentence, After She Confesses.

Mrs. Annie Gifford, a seventeen-year-old bride, who was arrested last Saturday night, charged with forging the name of Herman Chute of No. 21 East Twenty-sixth street, by whom she was employed up to the day before her marriage, Sept. 21, was today indicted by the Grand Jury on two counts of forgery in the second degree. It had been charged she had forged checks for various amounts to a total of $300.

When she was arraigned before Judge McQuinn, in Part 1 of the Court of General Sessions, she pleaded guilty to the charges.

"How do you like your quarters in the Tombs?" asked the Judge.

"Not at all," answered the girl and then she began to cry.

"I think you are a very foolish girl," went on the Judge, "but in as much as I can't impose sentence on you today I'll have to remain you until tomorrow."

"Oh, please, Judge, don't do that; I don't want to go back there," pleaded the sobbing girl.

The Rev. Dr. Tinker, Episcopal chaplain in the Tombs, was in court, and to him the girl made an appeal for aid. Judge McQuinn called Dr. Tinker and said:

"Will you take charge of her until tomorrow?"

Dr. Tinker said he was glad to assume charge of the girl, and she was placed in his custody until tomorrow, when she will be sentenced. The unusual proceedings of paroling an indicted person without bail caused considerable comment about the court.

POLICE SAVE FOUR TENANTS AND ARE CUT OFF BY FIRE

Dehrens and Rocklein Finally Escape by Struggling to the Roof.

Cut off by fire and smoke on the third floor of a burning building while engaged in saving the lives of four people, one of them an old woman of seventy, two policemen of the Adams street station, Brooklyn, had a narrow escape early this morning at No. 189 Myrtle avenue. They finally saved themselves and their charges by taking to the roof.

The building is occupied on the ground floor by the bakery and lunch-room of Emil Hall, who sleeps on the second floor with his wife, Rosina, and two children, Emil, ten, and Elizabeth, nine. On the third floor live John Farley and his wife, Martha, Lena Knight, eighteen, an employee, and Mrs. Anna Hoffman, seventy. Mrs. Hall's mother, Policemen Dehrens and Rocklein saw smoke coming from the cellar. Dehrens turned in the alarm while Rocklein ran to the building and found that a pot of grease on the stove had upset and caught fire. The flames spread to the dumb-waiter shaft, and the policemen began arousing the inmates of the house.

The Hall's got out safely, but when the policemen went to the third floor,

LONG ISLANDER KILLED.

John Scinto of Jamaica Cut Up by Train in Indiana.

(Special to The Evening World.)

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 21.—John Scinto of Jamaica, L. I., was ground to pieces last night by a Grand Trunk train near Grimsby, a few miles west of South Bend.

Both legs and arms were severed, as was the head, which has not been found. The remains of the body, which were strewn along the track for one hundred feet, were identified by papers picked up after the accident, along with $60.40 scattered from his pockets.

It is not known how the accident happened, but it is supposed Scinto was pulled by the snowplow, which was raking at the time, and failed to estimate correctly the distance away from him of the train at a street crossing.

DIAMONDS

3/4 CARAT $29

During the past 30 years we have by personal visits and cable kept in close touch with the world's diamond market at Amsterdam and been in many "Melon cuttings," the most notable was during the panic of 1907, when many of our customers bought diamonds that would yield them a big profit to-day. Now comes along a better deal which we have just concluded. Without going into detail we now offer for your inspection tray after tray of single stone diamond rings. The average weight is three-quarters of a carat each. Some weigh more, others a trifle less, but on account of the "spread" cutting nearly every one looks to weigh at least a carat. The first callers have their pick at $29 each. Without saying what a retail dealer would charge for rings like these, take one to any wholesale dealer or importer and if he will truthfully say that he will duplicate it in lots of one or one hundred for less than $2,000 the money will be refunded. Our agreement given at the time of sale provides for the return of the money if desired for any cause, any time within one year. No mail orders can be filled or dealers supplied.

Observe the weights and prices of a few of our special diamond rings equally as cheap, quality considered.

MEN'S HOUSE COATS $4.75

Special, Fifth Floor.

Cannot be matched elsewhere under $6.50

All-wool double-breasted cloth; in gray, brown and blue; the reverse side in contrasting colored stripe and plaid designs. Edges, pockets and cuffs finished with braid and silk cord. Sizes 34 to 46.

Other house coats in stock at $7.50, $10.75, $14.75 and $19.75.

The $19.75 quality is an imported English model, made of blue novelty velvet and lined with silk serge. The $14.75 coat is of blue velvet, with lined through-out, pockets and edges bound with silk cord.

Dressing Gowns

Dressing Gowns: Macy's range in price from $3.95 for robes made from fine downy blankets up to $24.74, either for one made of imported Paisley silk and wool or an English toulard silk in plain colors or Persian patterns.

Jap Hand Quilted Silk Coats and Robes

When you buy these garments at Macy's you are buying garments fashioned to fit the American figure.

That is because they are worked in Japan over designs and specifications from our own workrooms here on the premises.

The usual Jap Coat and Robe sold in New York is imported, READY MADE UP, and being intended for the widest-stated Oriental is by no means suitable for the staid American.

Our Japanese House Coats are $4.75, $6.50, $8.25, $10.00, $11.75, $13.50, $15.25, $17.00, $18.75, $20.50, $22.25, $24.00, $25.75, $27.50, $29.25, $31.00, $32.75, $34.50, $36.25,
